

The Benefits of being an MSA Coach

1) Pick your practice location, day and time!!

- a) That's right! The coach gets the 1st choice on location, day and time. We ask that you please be open-minded to others, but you are the coach so pick a schedule that works for you.

2) The opportunity to teach life lessons

- a) The coach has a great opportunity to teach life lessons that go far beyond the playing field. Most often these life lessons are learned and the coach never knows, but the impact was made nonetheless 😊

3) The opportunity to spend time with your child!

- a) Many coach for this very reason. We all know how busy life gets so having the opportunity to help others yet spend the same time with your own child is hard to beat!

4) Receive weekly practice plans

- a) That's right! You don't have to know much about soccer because we will help you. Each week the DOC provides a detailed practice plan for a specific topic with pictures, instructions and coaching points that make coaching an MSA team a positive experience.

5) An MSA Staff ready to serve you.

i) Scott Hunter, MSA Director of Coaching

- (1) Questions relating to practice plans, formations, referees and all questions relating to the coaching / game day piece of soccer.

ii) Chris Whiteman, MSA Program Administrator

- (1) Questions relating to practice site field availability, uniforms, team contact information, picture day information and all questions related to the administrative soccer of being the coach.
